

p. 115

1

There are different ways of asking questions depending on the situation and the people involved. Question 1 is a direct question and more suitable for an informal situation. Question 2 is an indirect question (statement). It's more polite, so more suitable for a more formal situation.

2

1 D, I

2 I, D

3 I, D

3

3

4

1 what a giraffe's favourite food is.

2 when the dolphin show began?

3 what the pandas have eaten so far today?

4 if/whether we can feed the monkeys?

5 how much a dolphin weighs?

5

1 C

2 C

3 A

6

Students' own answers

7

1 you tell me

2 That's/How (very)

3 this one/tree is

4 of view

8

Students' own answers

Language Functions

1

1 tell me where the beach is

2 like to know how long an elephant lives

3 tell me when your dog was born

4 like to know how plants grow

2

1 the name of this animal is

2 (It's / That's not) / Not really my thing

3 the trip to the zoo will take

4 how often I should come

3

Students' own answers